

THE MOORE CAPTAIN.

Stephenson Will Be the Next and Last to Face the Music.

THEN RE-ENTER MR. LEXOW.

His Committee Will Soon Sit to Continue the Investigation.

NO DECISIONS THIS WEEK.

The Police Commissioners have agreed not to render their decision in the trial of Capt. Adam A. Cross and his old man, George Smith, until the trial of Capt. William S. Devery and his old ward man, Edward Glennon, and Patrolman James Burns have been finished.

The trial of these officers have been adjourned until Tuesday next. As there is no defense in the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

Meanwhile, Capt. John T. Stephenson's trial will be postponed, perforce.

Mr. Wellman, counsel to the Board of Police, has stated that Stephenson would be tried alone, and as he, as well as the Commissioners are averse to going on with the trial while the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, and the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

Mr. Wellman's assistants have been investigating charges against at least four other captains, however, and he has stated that Stephenson would be tried alone, and as he, as well as the Commissioners are averse to going on with the trial while the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, and the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

Mr. Wellman's assistants have been investigating charges against at least four other captains, however, and he has stated that Stephenson would be tried alone, and as he, as well as the Commissioners are averse to going on with the trial while the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, and the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

Mr. Wellman's assistants have been investigating charges against at least four other captains, however, and he has stated that Stephenson would be tried alone, and as he, as well as the Commissioners are averse to going on with the trial while the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, and the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

Mr. Wellman's assistants have been investigating charges against at least four other captains, however, and he has stated that Stephenson would be tried alone, and as he, as well as the Commissioners are averse to going on with the trial while the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, and the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

Mr. Wellman's assistants have been investigating charges against at least four other captains, however, and he has stated that Stephenson would be tried alone, and as he, as well as the Commissioners are averse to going on with the trial while the case of Capt. Devery and Edward Glennon, and the conclusion of their trials will be reached early on Tuesday, but Lawyers Friend and House are doing battle in defense of Burns, and as the case is still with the prosecution, it is probable that the Burns trial will not be concluded before Wednesday.

CORBETT'S TOWN HOUSE.

The fugitive fitting up a residence in the luxurious fashion.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

Did you know that Corbett had a palatial residence in this city? The wonderful in de die and artistic decorations.

PECULIAR TESTIMONIAL MIX.

Diamondstein introduced to Wife No. 2 by Wife No. 1.

Afterwards He Returned to His First Choice and Was Arrested.

Isaac Diamondstein, a peddler, thirty-one years old, of 266 Cherry street, was arraigned before Justice Feltner, in the Essex Market Police Court today to answer a charge of bigamy and grand larceny.

Rosa Diamondstein, of Brownville, was the complainant against him. She says she is his second wife. She alleges that Diamondstein and his first wife conspired together to defraud her. It was the first wife, she says, who introduced her to Diamondstein, two months ago, and represented him as a business man who wanted to marry.

She became engaged to him and a week later became his wife. He lived with her for two weeks and then disappeared, she alleges, with her jewelry and $100. Then Rosa, the second wife, said that she discovered that he had been duped. She played detective and searched for the man, and after a dull search found him living with his first wife at 266 Cherry street.

Rosa went to Capt. Frank of the Madison street station, and stated her case to him. Policeman Ryan arrested Isaac on the charge of bigamy. The man was met in the station-house and would have come to blows but for police interference.

Mary, wife No. 1, stated that when her husband married Rosa, wife No. 2, she had obtained a church divorce from her. But finding that he liked her better than wife No. 2, he obtained a similar divorce from the church, and went to live with the first wife again.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

Justice Feltner adjourned the further hearing of the case till to-morrow.

BEHEADED AS SPIES.

Many Japanese Said to Have Been Killed in Formosa.

Chinese Active in Hunting Down Agents of Their Enemies.

Their Cavalry Reported to Have Done Excellent Work.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 25.—The activity of the Chinese in hunting down Japanese spies increases every day, and if the Chinese are to be believed, the coast must be overrun with agents of the Japanese Government.

Seven Japanese, in Chinese costume, were arrested here to-day, and it is given out that they will be expelled from China, but nobody would be surprised if they were treated much more severely. The Japanese elsewhere are subjected to the most harsh treatment.

At the island of Formosa the Chinese authorities have been decapitating Japanese subjects, supposed to be spies, in large numbers. According to advices received here from Formosa, fifty Japanese have had their heads cut off recently, after having been arrested as spies.

The most intense heat prevails here, and there is much suffering in consequence.

In order to raise money to push the warlike operations, the Chinese Government has increased the transit dues on the Chinese cavalry in dividing the difficult task to drive him out of the peninsula.

Then told him, said the Captain, "that I didn't see how he could make a living in the place when he only sells about 20 cents worth of goods a day, and notwithstanding that, he defies me to come here. I am going to keep right on until I get him out of here, and I'll see whether I cannot drive him away. I was compelled to get policemen from other precincts to give the evidence to raid the place."

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 25.—At the morning session of the Constitutional convention to-day, Mr. McDonough continued his amendment abolishing prison labor competition, but keeping the prisoners at work.

Mr. McDonough would have prisoners at work. He said that the labor organizations had not asked that the prisoners be kept idle. They could make good use of their hands, and do other work. All that they wanted was that the products of the prison should not be sold at a price to compete with the honest labor outside.

He showed by figures that the best of goods could be made by the prisoners, and that the cost of outside manufacture by prisoners, because the men's living was not taken into account, was very high, and was being made out of prison labor.

He said his measure would farm the industry of the State to the municipal work. He called attention to the New York Penitentiary, where the prisoners were very busy providing goods for the various departments of charities.

Philabury, the Superintendent, had said that if he was the State Superintendent of Prisons he could keep all the prisoners at work, and that the cost of the prison would be reduced to the cost of the food and the wages of the prisoners, and do it with profit to the State.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

APISDORF AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

His Place Raided and Two Women Arrested.

Capt. Cortright Hunt for the Man with a "Pull."

MORRIS Apisdorf, the cafe-keeper, of 187 Allen street, who has been repeatedly arrested for quarrelling with his wife, was again a prisoner at the Essex Market Police Court today. He boasts of his "pull." This time he was held for trial in default of $500 bail on a charge of running the cafe as a disorderly resort.

Policemen Neinschaeffer and Weiner, of the East Sixty-seventh Street Station, obtained the evidence against the place, while the former was disguised as a hunchback and his brother policeman as a butcher's clerk. They visited the place on August 21st and 22d. While there they were served with whiskey and beer, and were invited into a rear room by two of the girls. On their return Capt. Cortright obtained a warrant for Apisdorf.

Capt. Cortright went to raid the place on Thursday night last. Apisdorf was not present and the two girls found in the place were arrested. Justice Feltner discharged one of the girls yesterday and fined the other $10. Last night Apisdorf was caught in the cafe and arrested.

In court to-day Apisdorf denied being the proprietor of the place, and said that he sold meat in the back room, and a difficult task to drive him out of the precinct.

Then told him, said the Captain, "that I didn't see how he could make a living in the place when he only sells about 20 cents worth of goods a day, and notwithstanding that, he defies me to come here. I am going to keep right on until I get him out of here, and I'll see whether I cannot drive him away. I was compelled to get policemen from other precincts to give the evidence to raid the place."

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 25.—At the morning session of the Constitutional convention to-day, Mr. McDonough continued his amendment abolishing prison labor competition, but keeping the prisoners at work.

Mr. McDonough would have prisoners at work. He said that the labor organizations had not asked that the prisoners be kept idle. They could make good use of their hands, and do other work. All that they wanted was that the products of the prison should not be sold at a price to compete with the honest labor outside.

He showed by figures that the best of goods could be made by the prisoners, and that the cost of outside manufacture by prisoners, because the men's living was not taken into account, was very high, and was being made out of prison labor.

He said his measure would farm the industry of the State to the municipal work. He called attention to the New York Penitentiary, where the prisoners were very busy providing goods for the various departments of charities.

Philabury, the Superintendent, had said that if he was the State Superintendent of Prisons he could keep all the prisoners at work, and that the cost of the prison would be reduced to the cost of the food and the wages of the prisoners, and do it with profit to the State.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

Mr. McDonough appealed to the members of the assembly to support his amendment, but was satisfied that employment in a humane cause if they passed this amendment.

OUR THEATRES NEXT WEEK.

Fannie Rice in Her New Play at the Bijou.

Sothern at the Lyceum—A New Melodrama.

The Bijou Theatre starts upon its new season to-night with Miss Fannie Rice, in a comedy-farce new to this city, entitled "Hudson's Bay." The play is an adaptation from the French, and was very well received in the West. Miss Rice's company will include George H. Edison, Charles Coste, Frank Jones, Melville Stewart, William Henderson, Rose Heald, Carrie Birkle, Emily Walker, Beattie Haight, Gladys Greene and Seale Jones. "Miss Innocence abroad" will give Miss Rice opportunities to sing, dance and introduce her various specialties.

E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will appear in the play. The company includes: E. H. Sothern, a young actor of whom New Yorkers are very fond, will begin his eighth annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Monday night. He will present a brand-new play, written expressly for him by Paul I. Potter, entitled "The Victoria Cross." All the members of his carefully selected company will